

BOWEN FINANCIAL SERVICES, LLC

Relationship Summary (Form CRS)

Item 1 – Introduction

Bowen Financial Services, LLC (“we” or “us”) is registered with the Securities Exchange Commission (“SEC”) as an investment adviser. Our services and compensation structure differ from a registered broker-dealer, and it is important for you to understand the differences between those structures. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at <https://www.investor.gov/CRS>. The site also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers and investing. The bulleted and italicized sentences appearing below are intended to be “conversation starters” for you to have with us, as required by the instructions to Form CRS.

Item 2 – Relationships and Services

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

Our primary service offering is “Wealth Management,” which includes discretionary portfolio management and a broad range of consulting topics such as: financial planning, tax planning, charitable gifting, estate considerations, college planning, risk / insurance management, wealth transfer and other special needs to individuals and their trusts and estates (“you,” “clients,” or our “retail investors”). We provide these services based on each client’s unique circumstances, including their investment objectives, risk tolerance, investment time horizon, withdrawal requirements, and other special circumstances, which we develop through discussions with our clients and confirm in a personal investment plan. We provide our investment management services on a discretionary basis, which means we have the authority to buy and sell investments in your account without speaking to you before doing so. However, you can place reasonable restrictions on the securities that we buy by notifying us, in writing. We monitor client portfolios periodically and make changes as we determine necessary. We do not have to limit the type of securities we trade for retail investors to proprietary products or a limited group or type of investment, but we generally construct and manage portfolios containing no-load institutional class mutual funds (with an emphasis on low costs while achieving the desired returns of the targeted asset class), and to a lesser extent: exchange traded funds (“ETFs”), individual equities, individual bonds, and unaffiliated private investment funds in limited circumstances. All our consulting / financial planning services address the specific needs of the retail investor and may include any or all of the following areas of concern: personal financial planning, education planning, income tax and cash flow analysis, death and disability analysis, retirement planning, investment review, estate planning, and insurance analysis.

On a limited basis, we will also provide financial planning services to retail investors that are not Wealth Management clients. When we provide those services, we rely upon the information clients provide and do not verify or monitor that information while or after providing these services. Our financial planning and consulting services are completed upon the communication of our recommendations to the retail investor. Our Wealth Management services are designed for relationships with a minimum account size of $500,000. Subject to certain exceptions described in Items 5 and 7 of our Form ADV Part 2A, accounts below this minimum may be charged an annual fee not to exceed $5,000. For more detailed information about our Advisory Business and the Types of Clients we generally service, please see Items 4 and 7, respectively in our Form ADV Part 2A.

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

Item 3 – Fees, Costs, Conflicts, and Standard of Conduct

What fees will I pay?

As fee-only fiduciaries, we provide services and receive fees only from you. With certain exceptions described in Item 5 of our Form ADV Part 2A, our fee is based upon the tiered fee schedule ranging between 0.25% and 1.00% of the value of the managed portfolio. Because this fee is based on the amount of your assets under our management, the more assets you designate for our management, the more you will pay for our services. Therefore, we may have an incentive to encourage you to increase the amount of assets that you designate for our management. However, under the tiered fee schedule, as the value of assets under our management increases, the applicable fee percentage decreases incrementally at each tier. We either deduct our fee from one or more of your investment accounts or bill you for our services quarterly, in advance. We charge an hourly fee for stand-alone financial planning and consulting services to clients who are not Wealth Management clients, payable 50% upon engagement and 50% upon completion of the service.

Your account will be held with a qualified custodian. Custodians and their affiliated or unaffiliated broker dealers generally charge transaction fees for executing certain types of securities transactions and for costs to maintain your investment account. In addition, if your assets are invested in mutual funds, ETFs, or other registered and unregistered investment companies, you will bear your pro rata share of the investment management fees and other fees of the funds, which are in addition to the fees you pay us. These fees and expenses are described in each fund's prospectus or other offering documents. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. For more detailed information about our fees and costs related to our management of your account, please see Item 5 in our Form ADV Part 2A.

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we act in your best interest and do not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means:

- We may recommend a particular custodian from whom we receive support services. This presents a conflict of interest, because our receipt of their support may make us more inclined to continue using and recommending them.
- We may recommend rollovers out of employer-sponsored retirement plans and into Individual Retirement Accounts that we manage for an asset-based fee. If we do not currently manage your account held with your employer's plan, this will increase our compensation.

- How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

For more detailed information about our conflicts of interest, please review Item 4, 11 and 12 of our Form ADV Part 2A.

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our financial professionals are generally compensated on a salary plus bonus. Bonuses are based on the gross revenues of the firm. This presents conflicts of interest, as it may incentivize our financial professionals to recommend that you place additional assets under our management. We mitigate those conflicts by making recommendations in conformity with each client's investment objective and savings strategy. You should discuss your financial professional's compensation directly with your financial professional.

Item 4 – Disciplinary History

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

No. We encourage you to visit www.Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research our firm and our financial professionals.

- As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? If so, for what type of conduct?
