- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

For additional information, please see Item 5 of our Form ADV, 2A Brochure (Part 2A) available at www.procap.net or <https://www.adviserinfo.sec.gov/IAPD/default.aspx>

Conversation Starter. Ask your financial professional...

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we must act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are examples to help you understand what this means.

It is important to understand that the more assets held in a retail client's account, the more the client will pay in fees. We therefore have an incentive to encourage a client to increase the assets in his/her account. In addition, our minimum account size is negotiable under certain circumstances and at our discretion. Should we agree to waive this minimum account size, we would receive less compensation for services provided. We, therefore, have a disincentive to waive this minimum. Management personnel and other related persons of our firm are licensed as registered representatives of a broker-dealer and/or licensed as insurance agents or brokers. This presents a conflict of interest to the extent that these individuals recommend that a client invest in a security which results in a commission paid to the individuals.

- How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

For additional information, please see our Form ADV, 2A Brochure (Part 2A) available at www.procap.net or <https://www.adviserinfo.sec.gov/IAPD/default.aspx>.

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our financial professionals are compensated on agreed-upon compensation that is based on a percentage of the revenue from the accounts they service and may also receive periodic discretionary bonuses. Financial professionals may earn income from outside businesses (i.e. as a registered representative or independent insurance agent). Such compensation is completely independent from services they provide for Prometheus and no fees are collected from referrals generated between Prometheus and any outside firms. As a client of Prometheus, you are never obligated to utilize these services. For more information, please refer to Item 4, 10 and 12 in our firm ADV Part 2a, or inquire with your financial advisor.
