

HBW Advisory Services LLC
FORM CRS - March 27, 2024

HBW Advisory Services LLC is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an investment adviser and, as such, we provide advisory services rather than brokerage services. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and it is important for you, our client, to understand the differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing. This document is a summary of the services and fees we offer to "retail" investors, which are natural persons who seek or receive services primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer the following investment advisory services to retail investors: Financial Planning Services; Asset Management Services; Financial Consulting Services; Selection of Other Advisers.

Account Monitoring: If you open an investment account with our firm, as part of our standard Asset Management service we will monitor your investments on a daily basis. For clients who engage us for any other services besides Asset Management services, we will not monitor your account unless specified in the advisory agreement.

Investment Authority: We manage investment accounts on a discretionary basis whereby we will decide which investments to buy or sell for your account. We have discretion to select, retain or replace third-party managers to manage your accounts. We may also offer non-discretionary investment management services whereby we will provide advice, but you will ultimately decide which investments to buy and sell for your account. You have an unrestricted right to decline to implement any advice provided by our firm on a non-discretionary basis.

Investment Offerings: We offer advice on the following types of investments or products: equity securities, private markets, corporate debt securities (other than commercial paper), certificates of deposit, municipal securities, variable annuities, mutual fund shares, U.S. government securities, options contracts on securities, money market funds, REITs and ETFs.

Account Minimums and Requirements: In general, we do not require a minimum dollar amount to open and maintain an advisory account; however, we have the right to terminate your account if it falls below a minimum size which, in our sole opinion, is too small to manage effectively.

Detailed information regarding our services, fees and other disclosures can be found in our Form ADV Part 2A Items 4, 7, and 8 by clicking this link <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/143665>.

Key Questions to Ask Your Financial Professional

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or Why Not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications?
- What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

The following summarizes the principal fees and costs associated with engaging our firm for investment advisory services.

- Asset Based Fees - Payable quarterly in arrears for standard Asset Management services. In limited circumstances, fees may be billed monthly rather than quarterly; fees may be based on account balance at the end of a billing period instead of an average daily balance; or fees may be billed in advance rather than arrears. The specific fee and the methodology by which the fee is calculated will be specified in the Investment Advisory Agreement executed with our firm. Since the fees we receive are asset-based (i.e. based on the value of your account), we have an incentive to increase your account value which creates a conflict especially for those accounts holding illiquid or hard-to-value assets;
- Hourly Fees - Payable as specified in the advisory agreement you sign with our firm. A portion of fees may be payable up-front based on an estimate of hours required for services with the balance due upon completion of services, or quarterly in arrears for on-going services.
- Subscription Fees - Payable monthly;
- Fixed Fees - Payable as specified in the advisory agreement you sign with our firm;
- Other Advisory Fees - In addition to the above fees, we are also compensated by the receipt of a portion of fees paid to a third party advisor, when applicable.

Examples of the most common additional fees and costs applicable to our clients are:

- Custodian and account maintenance fees;
- Advisory fees charged by third party money managers, which are separate and apart from our fees;
- Fees related to mutual funds and exchange-traded funds;
- Transaction charges when purchasing or selling securities; and
- Other product-level fees associated with your investments.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

For detailed information, refer to our Form ADV Part 2A, Items 5 and 6 by clicking this link <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/143665>.

Key Questions to Ask Your Financial Professional

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.

- Third-Party Payments: Persons providing advice on behalf of our firm are registered representatives with a broker-dealer. These persons receive compensation in connection with the purchase and sale of securities or other investment products. Compensation earned by these persons is separate and in addition to our advisory fees. This practice presents a conflict of interest because they have an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received rather than solely based on your needs.
- Third-Party Payments: Persons providing investment advice on behalf of our firm are licensed as independent insurance agents. These persons will earn commission-based compensation for selling insurance products. Insurance commissions are separate and in addition to our advisory fees. This practice presents a conflict of interest because they have an incentive to recommend insurance products to you for the purpose of generating commissions rather than solely based on your needs.

Key Questions to Ask Your Financial Professional

- How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

Refer to our Form ADV Part 2A Brochure by clicking this link <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/143665> to help you understand what conflicts exist.

How do your financial professionals make money?

The financial professionals servicing your account(s) are compensated in the following ways: a portion of the assets under management fees charged to clients. Financial professionals' compensation is based on the amount of client assets they service; the products sold (i.e. differential compensation); and the revenue the firm earns from the person's services or recommendations. This compensation represents a conflict of interest in that our financial professionals have a financial incentive to refer clients to our firm. Our financial professionals will also make money in their capacities as registered representatives and as insurance agents, as described above.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

Yes, our firm or our financial professionals currently have legal or disciplinary history to disclose. Visit Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple research tool.

Key Questions to Ask Your Financial Professional

- As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?

Exhibit to Form CRS

HBW Advisory Services LLC is required to update its Form CRS when information in the Form CRS becomes materially inaccurate. This Exhibit summarizes the following material changes to the firm's Form CRS, implemented on March 27, 2024:

- We have amended "What investment services and advice can you provide me?" to remove reference to a wrap-fee program. HBW Advisory Services no longer acts as sponsor or manager of a wrap-fee program. Thus, the firm no longer has an Appendix 1 brochure and reference to the Appendix 1 has been removed from the entire Form CRS. We have also added "private markets" to the investment offerings offered by the firm.
- We have amended "What fees will I pay" to disclose that in limited circumstances, fees may be billed monthly rather than quarterly; fees may be based on account balance at the end of a billing period instead of an average daily balance; or fees may be billed in advance rather than arrears. The specific fee and the methodology by which the fee is calculated will be specified in the Investment Advisory Agreement executed with our firm. We have also removed reference to "Wrap Program Fees".
