Introduction

Bayshore Asset Management, LLC d/b/a, Bayshore Wealth Advisors, is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an investment advisor. Fees for brokerage and investment advisory services differ among broker-dealers and investment advisors, and it is important you understand the differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisors, and investing.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer wealth management services to retail investors, which include financial planning and portfolio management services. We provide periodic advice and reviews regarding your investment goals and objectives, tax planning, risk management, retirement planning, education planning, cash flow and investment planning. In our portfolio management services, we will continuously monitor your investment accounts over which you provide us with such authority and provide advice. In your investment advisory agreement with us, you may give us discretion to determine the investments to buy and sell on your behalf and the authority to select other investment advisers on your behalf. If you choose to give us discretion, we will make the ultimate determination (within the parameters set in your investment policy) regarding the investments purchased and sold in your account. If you do not provide us with discretion, then we will make recommendations which you will have the final decision regarding implementation. You may impose reasonable restrictions on our discretionary authority. Any restrictions must be provided to us in writing and accepted by us. We require a minimum initial and ongoing account size for portfolio management services.

We will be glad to discuss the following questions with you to help you better understand the relationship you will have with our firm: Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not? How will you choose investments to recommend to me? What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

Please refer to our Form ADV, Part 2A Brochure for more detailed information on our services.

What fees will I pay?

We charge a fee for our advisory services. Those fees are calculated as a percentage of assets under management for portfolio management services. These fees are assessed on a quarterly basis, in advance. You should be aware that the more assets there are in your account, the more you will pay in fees. This means we have an incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account.

In addition to our advisory fees, you may incur additional fees and costs related to the investments in your account, such as transaction costs, wire transfer and electronic fund fees, internal management fees of mutual funds and variable annuities. Certain securities transferred from previous financial firms may also have product-related fees such as surrender charges and redemption fees.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

You should carefully review our Form ADV, Part 2A Brochure to understand the fees and costs you will pay to us.

We will be glad to discuss the following question with you to help you better understand the impact of fees and costs on investments: Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?"

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment advisor, we are required to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we are compensated may create some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means:

- We recommend mutual funds whose investment companies provide us with educational information and software that provides information helpful in our investment advice process. This creates the appearance of a conflict because we have an incentive to recommend mutual funds whose sponsors provide us with these tools.
- Schwab, Fidelity, and TD Ameritrade make available to us other products and services that benefit us but may not directly benefit the client or its account. These products and services assist us in managing and administering our clients' accounts.

We will be glad to discuss the following question with you to help you better understand the conflicts of interest we have: How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our financial professionals receive a salary and discretionary bonus on performance and the success of the firm.

You should carefully review our Form ADV, Part 2A Brochure for more detailed information about our conflicts of interest.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

No, please visit Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research our firm and your financial professional.

We will discuss the following questions with you to help you better understand our disciplinary history: As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?
