RELATIONSHIPS & SERVICES

What Investment Services & Advice Can You Provide Me?

Description of services - We offer investment advisory services to retail investors, including investment supervisory services, financial planning services, ERISA and retirement plan consulting services, educational courses and workshops, and selection of other advisers services, as part of our standard services. If you open an advisory account with our firm, we will discuss your financial goals and help you design a strategy that strives to achieve those goals. Our services are controlled by our investment advisory contract with you. We are responsible for monitoring retail investors' investments; we will offer you advice regularly and will contact our clients, by phone, in person, or by e-mail no less than annually to review their portfolio accounts. We will provide you with various account reports periodically and no less than annually at a minimum. Your custodian will have custody/possession of your account assets and will provide you with monthly or quarterly account statements and trade confirms showing all activity during the reporting period, as well as the deduction of any fees, expenses, or other charges from your account. We are available for more frequent meetings upon your request. We do not monitor financial planning services client accounts and will not contact them to review their portfolio or provide further reports after delivering their plan.

We offer two types of investment authority: discretionary or non-discretionary accounts. You can choose a "discretionary account" (an account that allows us to buy and sell investments within your account, without asking you in advance), or a "non-discretionary account" (an account where we will provide you advice, and you will then decide how to proceed; you will make the ultimate decision concerning the purchase or sale of your investments). We do not exercise any investment authority in connection with financial plan preparation or educational courses and workshop services. We do not restrict our advice to limited types of products or investments. Other firms could provide advice on a wider range of choices, some of which might have lower costs. Our minimum asset requirement for new clients is $500,000. We may make an exception to this requirement at our discretion. There are no minimum account amounts for financial planning services or participating in our educational courses and workshops. Clients who use our selection of other advisers' services must invest the amounts detailed within their Account Agreement with their referred 3rd Party Adviser. Our clients are under no obligation to act upon our recommendation(s). Should they elect to act on any recommendations received, they are under no obligation to effect the transaction through us. (For more information, please view our Form ADV Part 2A Disclosure Brochure, Items 4 & 7.)

Conversation Starters: Ask Your Financial Professional — Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not? How will you choose investments to recommend to me? What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education, and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean? Please explain what the abbreviations in your licenses are and what they mean.

Compare Us vs. Typical Brokerage Accounts - You could also open a brokerage account with a broker-dealer ("BD"), where you may pay a transaction-based fee, generally referred to as a commission, when the broker-dealer buys or sells an investment for you. Features of typical brokerage accounts include (1) with a broker-dealer, you may select investments, or the BD may recommend investments for your account, but the ultimate decision for your investments is yours, (2) a BD must act in your best interests and not place its interests ahead of yours when they recommend an investment or an investment strategy involving securities, and the purchase and sale of investments will be yours, (3) when a BD provides any service to you, they must treat you fairly and comply with a number of specific obligations. Unless you and the BD agree otherwise, they are not required to monitor your portfolio or investments on an ongoing basis, (4) if you were to pay a transaction-based fee in a brokerage account, the more trades in your account, the more fees the BD may charge you, so it may have an incentive to encourage you to trade often. You can receive advice in either type of account, but you may prefer paying a transaction-based fee from a cost perspective if you do not trade often or if you plan to buy and hold investments for longer periods of time. You may prefer paying an asset-based fee if you want continuing advice or want someone to make investment decisions for you, even though it may cost you more than a transaction-based fee.

Conversation Starters: Ask Your Financial Professional — Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why should I choose a brokerage account? Why or why not?

FEES, COSTS, CONFLICTS & STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

What Fees Will I Pay?

Description of Principal Fees & Costs - All Canter Wealth's fees vary and are negotiable. The amounts you will pay for advisory services will depend upon the services you choose and the dollar value of assets, including cash, in your account. Fees and costs affect the value of your account over time. Please ask your financial professional to give you personalized information on the fees and costs that you will pay. (Any fees you pay will align with the types of fees we report in our Form ADV Part 2A Disclosure Brochure, Items 4 & 7, and consider your ERISA 408(b)(2) disclosure (as applicable).

You must be aware:

➔ The amount paid to our firm and your financial professional generally does not vary based on the type of investments we select on your behalf.

- Fees will reduce the value of your account and will be deducted from your account - typically, the more assets you have in an advisory account, including cash, the more you will pay us. We, therefore, have an incentive to increase the assets in your account to increase our fees, which creates a conflict of interest when we charge ongoing asset-based fees for our services.
- Fees will be deducted directly from your account or, as further detailed in our Form ADV Part 2B Disclosure Brochure and your executed Advisory Agreement, and some investments, such as mutual funds and variable annuities, will also impose additional fees that will reduce the value of your investments over time. You may also be required to pay fees when certain investments are sold (i.e., surrender charges for selling variable annuities).
- Please ask your financial professional to give you personalized information on the fees and costs that you will pay. Lower fees for comparable services can, at times, be available from other sources.

Selection of Other Advisers Services	We are compensated via a fee share from the 3 rd Party Advisers to which we direct clients. Fees are disclosed in the Agreement between us and each of the 3 rd Party Advisers to whom we introduce clients. Clients will pay an asset-based fee , paid quarterly in accordance with the Account Agreement they sign with their referred 3 rd Party Adviser.
Educational Courses & Workshops	Fees for educational courses and workshops may be charged either to participants through a pre-determined ticket price (typically $25-100) or to a sponsoring company via a flat fee. In limited circumstances, the fees may be waived.

Description of Other Fees & Costs - You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. The most common fees and costs applicable to our retail investors include fees and charges related to custodial and account maintenance fees, fees related to mutual funds, ETFs, and other transactional and/or product-level fees.

Conversation Starters: Ask Your Financial Professional — Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What Are Your Legal Obligations to Me When Acting As My Investment Adviser? How Else Does Your Firm Make Money & What Conflicts of Interest Do You Have? When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. We are held to a fiduciary standard that covers our entire investment advisory relationship with you. We must abide by certain laws and regulations in our interactions with you. We are required to monitor your portfolio, investment strategy, and investments on an ongoing basis. Our interests can conflict with your interests. We must eliminate these conflicts or tell you about them in a way you can understand so that you can decide whether to agree to them. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. For example, Canter Wealth is an affiliate of the Canter Companies, which operates a range of businesses through commonly controlled entities. We may, where appropriate, recommend products or services offered by an affiliated company, which may result in additional compensation to the Canter Companies.

How Do Your Financial Professionals Make Money? Our financial professionals are compensated based on the revenue our firm earns from their advisory services or recommendations, the amount of client assets they service, and the time and complexity required to meet a client's needs. Additionally, certain of our adviser representatives are licensed real estate agents of an independent and unaffiliated real estate brokerage and agency and may earn commissions from real estate transactions. (For additional information, please view our Form ADV Part 2A Disclosure Brochure, Item 10.)

Conversation Starters: Ask Your Financial Professional — How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?
