

CLEAR SKY FINANCIAL, LP
FORM CRS – CUSTOMER RELATIONSHIP SUMMARY –MARCH 2021

Item 1. Introduction

Clear Sky Financial, LP is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as an investment adviser. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ, and it is important for you to understand these differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment adviser, and investing.

Item 2. Relationships and Services

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer discretionary investment advisory services to retail investors with separately managed accounts. These advisory services include the formulation of a strategic financial plan specific to each client, followed by the implementation of such plan using product offerings over a variety of investable asset classes.

Discretionary. Providing discretionary services means, we will determine the following without consulting you, in advance:

- the securities to be bought or sold;
- the amount of securities to be bought or sold; and
- the broker or dealer to be used for a purchase or sale of securities.

However, we do not have discretion to determine the commission rates to be paid to a broker or dealer for your securities transactions. Commissions charged by the broker or dealer are set by the broker or dealer.

Monitoring. Our portfolios, accounts, and their holdings are monitored on an ongoing basis.

Limited Investment Offerings. Our discretionary investment advisory services are limited to those investment offerings provided on the institutional platform by the client's broker-dealer/custodian.

Account Minimums and Other Requirements. We do not have an account minimum requirement.

In addition to our primary services described above, the firm offers financial planning and consulting services.

Additional information. Please see Form ADV, Part 2A brochure (Items 4 and 7 of Part 2A) which can be found at <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/298551> and clicking on Part 2 Brochures.

Conversation Starters. Ask your financial professional—

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education, and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

Item 3. Fees, Costs, Conflicts, and Standard of Conduct

What fees will I pay?

For our discretionary investment advisory services, the fee will be assessed quarterly in advance based on a percentage per annum of the fair market value of all assets in the client's account as determined by the account's custodian on the first trading day of the quarter. The percentage per annum will be determined by us and agreed to by the client based on a number of factors such as assets under management, time and complexity, but will not exceed 2%.

For any partial quarter, fees will be calculated pro-rata based upon the number of days the account was open in that quarter. In the event of significant deposits to or withdrawals from the account during a calendar quarter, an adjustment will be made to the fees payable for the following calendar quarter to account for such deposits or withdrawals. Fees are negotiable. In the event of termination of the investment advisory agreement, any unearned fees paid in advance will be refunded to the client.

In addition to asset-based fees, clients generally will be required to bear all investment-related fees and expenses associated with their accounts, including, without limitation, transaction commissions, margin and custodial and brokerage fees, sub-advisory fees, and expenses transfer taxes and other fees and expenses relating to transactions in their accounts. Custody and administration fees, to the extent applicable, are charged separately by the custodian or administrator and are in addition to the advisory fees payable to us.

Our financial planning and consulting services are offered on a fixed or hourly rate basis, negotiable case-by-case, depending upon the level and scope of the service(s) required and the professional(s) rendering the service(s).

Additional Information. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. Please see Form ADV, Part 2A brochure (Items 5.A., B., C., and D of Part 2A) which can be found at <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/298551> and clicking on Part 2 Brochures.

Conversation Starter. Ask your financial professional—

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice, we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.

We recommend that our clients use Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. (“Schwab”), a registered broker-dealer, as their qualified custodian. We receive products and services from Schwab based upon the assets under management maintained by our firm at Schwab. We receive access to more and better products and services from Schwab as the assets held there increase. This is a conflict of interest because we have an incentive to encourage you to custody your assets at Schwab.

Conversation Starter. Ask your financial professional—

- How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

Additional information. Please see Form ADV, Part 2A brochure which can be found at <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/298551> and clicking on Part 2 Brochures.

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our financial professionals are owners of the firm and are compensated based upon the profitability of the firm and the assets under management for which they are responsible. Compensation is based on factors such as: the amount of client assets that they service; the time and complexity required to meet a client’s needs; as well as the revenue the firm earns. With this compensation structure, the more assets there are in your account, the more you will pay in fees, and the firm’s financial professionals may therefore have an incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account.

Additionally, some of our professionals are licensed insurance agents. They can offer fixed insurance products for which they will receive commissions from the insurance companies through an independent insurance agency. Professionals who offer fee based and commission-based products are subject to a conflict of interest. It is a conflict of interest because it provides them with an incentive to recommend products based on the commissions.
