What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer investment advisory services to retail investors, including asset management and comprehensive financial planning. As part of our standard services, we monitor our clients’ portfolio holdings and the overall asset allocation strategy on an annual basis, or when market conditions or other triggers would warrant a review. Triggers include a change of investment objectives, a change in employment, or a change in recommended asset allocation weightings. Financial plans, once prepared and delivered to you, are not reviewed again unless you request an update.

We primarily offer our asset management services on a discretionary basis. Discretionary asset management allows us the limited authority to buy and sell investments in your account without asking you each time a transaction is placed. With non-discretionary asset management, we provide investment recommendations but require your approval before placing trades for your account. You make the ultimate decision regarding the purchase or sale of investments. Our level of authority is determined at the beginning of our relationship with you.

While we can advise on any investment asset, our investment recommendations are primarily related to investments in exchange traded funds (ETFs) and mutual funds. We will also utilize other securities, such as certificates of deposit and cash equivalents to achieve your investment objectives. We generally impose an aggregate minimum value of $2 million per relationship.

For additional information, please see our Form ADV Part 2A (with special emphasis on Items 4, 7, and 16), which can be found on the SEC’s website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Conversation Starters – Ask Your Financial Professional:

Given my financial situation, should I choose investment advisory services? Why or why not?

How will you choose investments to recommend to me?

What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications?

What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

Principal Fees: We are compensated for providing the investment advisory services by charging an ongoing asset-based fee that ranges up to 1.0% per annum depending on the type and complexity of the investment strategy as well as the size of the account we manage for you. The fee is charged monthly in advance, based on the balance of the portfolio assets as of the opening of business on the first business day of each month. The more assets there are in your advisory account, the more you will pay in fees, and we therefore have an incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account. Comprehensive financial planning services are included in the annual management fee, and NFW does not charge separately for the financial planning services.

Other Fees and Costs: NFW’s fees are exclusive of brokerage commissions, transaction fees, and other related costs and expenses, which shall be incurred by the client. You will incur certain charges imposed by custodians, brokers, custodial fees, odd-lot differentials, transfer taxes, wire transfer and electronic fund fees, and other fees and taxes on brokerage accounts and securities transactions. Mutual funds and ETFs also charge internal management fees, which are disclosed in the funds’ prospectuses. These fees will generally include a management fee and other fund expenses. All fees paid to us for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds and ETFs to their shareholders.

Additional Information: You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce the amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. More detailed information about our fees and costs are included in our Form ADV Part 2A (Item 5) which can be found on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Conversation Starters – Ask Your Financial Professional:

Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here is an example to help you understand what this means.

NFW and its Investment Advisor Representatives (IARs) are allowed to invest for their own accounts in the same securities that we recommend or acquire for your account, and may engage in transactions that are the same or different than transactions recommended or made for you. This creates a conflict of interest that we mitigate by maintaining a Code of Ethics and compliance program that sets forth a standard of conduct that must be adhered to by all NFW personnel. These arrangements and additional information about other conflicts of interest are discussed in more detail in our Form ADV Part 2A, which can be found on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Conversation Starters – Ask Your Financial Professional:

How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our IARs are compensated through the receipt of a portion of revenue we receive for the advisory services we provide. The portion paid to your IAR generally does not vary based on the type of investments that are recommended.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?
