

Item 1 – Introduction: Is an investment advisory account right for you?

Octogone NA, LLC is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an investment adviser. Please be aware that brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and that it is important for you to understand the differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

Item 2 – What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer investment advisory services to retail investors. Our principal investment advisory service is portfolio management. As part of our standard portfolio management service, we provide continuous monitoring and supervisory services with respect to your account(s). Our portfolio management services are offered on either a discretionary or non-discretionary basis. Discretionary authorization allows us to determine the specific securities, and the amount of securities, to be purchased or sold for your account without your approval prior to each transaction. Non-discretionary arrangements require us to obtain your approval prior to executing any transactions on behalf of your account. We do not limit our advice to proprietary products, or a limited menu of products or types of investments. In general, we require a minimum of $1,000,000 to open and maintain an advisory account. At our discretion, we reserve the right to waive this account minimum.

For additional information, please refer to Items 4, 7, & 13 of our Form ADV Part 2A at the following link:

- ❖ Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
- ❖ How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- ❖ What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

Item 3 – What fees will I pay?

We are primarily compensated by a percentage of assets under our management and performance-based fees. Our fees vary depending on the services you receive. Portfolio management fees are based upon a percentage of your assets under our management, and are payable each quarter in advance. The more assets there are in your advisory account, the more you will pay in fees. Therefore, we have an incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account. Our fees are negotiable depending upon the complexity and scope of the service, your financial situation, and your objectives.

For additional information regarding our fees, please see Item 5 of our Form ADV Part 2A at the following link:
<https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/322478>.

Description of Other Fees and Costs: The fees that you pay to our firm for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by investment companies (i.e., mutual funds, exchange traded funds, unit investment trusts and variable annuities). These fees are described in each fund's prospectus. These fees will generally include a management fee and other fund expenses. You will also incur transaction charges and/or brokerage fees when purchasing or selling securities. These charges and fees are typically imposed by the broker-dealer or custodian that executes the trade. The broker-dealer or custodian may also charge your account for custodial fees, retirement account fees, trust fees, exchange fees, redemption fees that may be assessed on investment company shares, transfer fees, account termination fees or other special service fees and charges. We do not share in any portion of these fees or costs imposed by the broker-dealer or custodian. To fully understand the total cost you will incur, you should review all the fees or costs charged by investment companies, broker-dealers, our firm, and others.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

- ❖ Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. When we provide investment advice to you regarding your retirement plan account or individual retirement account, we are fiduciaries within the meaning of Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act and/or the Internal Revenue Code, as applicable, which are laws governing retirement accounts. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means:

- All investment advisers face conflicts of interest which are inherent in the business. Our primary source of compensation is through asset-based fees. Therefore, we are incentivized to acquire new clients and to encourage you to increase the assets in your account.
- We are the general partner and/or manager of a private fund (e.g., hedge fund) that we may recommend to you. If you invest in these proprietary private funds, we will receive management fees and/or performance-based fees from the fund. While our firm is accountable to you and the fund as a fiduciary and, consequently, must exercise good faith and integrity in handling both your and the fund's business, you should be aware of the potential for conflicts of interest. Investors in the fund should refer to the offering documents of the fund for detailed disclosures. We will not charge you an additional asset management fee for the portion of your portfolio that is invested in the fund(s).

- ❖ How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

Please refer to our Form ADV Part 2A for further information on our conflicts of interest and how we address them at the following link: <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/322478>.

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our financial professionals receive salary-based compensation, a percentage of advisory billings and/or bonuses based on the amount of client assets they bring to our firm. Therefore, our financial professionals have an incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account. Some of our financial advisors are eligible for additional compensation from our indirect parent company, Focus Financial Partners, LLC (or one of its affiliates), depending on our earnings. This potential for increased compensation provides an incentive for these financial advisors to encourage you to maintain and even increase the size of your investment account with us. See your financial advisor's Brochure Supplement for more information about your individual financial advisor's compensation.
