

Vector Technologies, LLC

Client Relationship Summary

Introduction

Vector Technologies, LLC is an investment adviser registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Investment advisory services, brokerage services, and fees differ, and it is important for you to understand these differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at www.Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We are an Internet adviser, which means that we offer investment advisory services to retail clients exclusively through the Internet. Our clients are individuals, including high net worth individuals, corporations, foundations, retirement and pension plan participants, and other entities.

We use a proprietary algorithm known as VectorSize ("VectorSize"), which suggests personalized trade sizes for U.S.-listed equities based upon certain information input by you on our website, including: (i) which stock you are interested in trading; (ii) your conviction in a particular trade ranging from zero to high; and (iii) the price levels at which you are willing to, expect to, and hope to trade. Based upon this information, VectorSize makes a recommendation regarding how much of the particular stock you should buy or sell.

Our services are provided without the direct use of human investment adviser representatives or financial planners. We do not implement any trade on your behalf or monitor your investments. You will make the ultimate decision about whether to implement a transaction or trade based on each recommendation. We do not require a minimum account size to sign up for our services. For additional information, please see Items 4, 7, and 8 of our Form ADV, Part 2A Brochure ("Brochure") available by clicking here.

Questions to Ask Us:

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education, and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

We will charge you a flat monthly fee through Stripe, a third party with which we have contracted to accept and process payments, in exchange for our investment advisory services. When you create an account on our website, you will be prompted to choose from a thirty (30) day free trial or a monthly subscription. Fees will generally be billed in advance on a monthly basis.

In the event that a subscription is cancelled, the fee will no longer be charged to you after the end of the current monthly billing period. You may cancel your subscription at any time without penalty. If you cancel your subscription in the middle of a monthly billing period, you will continue to have full access to our website and VectorSize until the next billing date but will not receive a refund of any portion of the fee for the current month.

The fee that you pay is exclusive of any and all fees charged by third parties in connection with executing the trades recommended through VectorSize, including custodial and transaction costs paid to the client's custodian, brokers, or other third party consultants. In addition, the fee is separate and apart from any internal fees and expenses charged by mutual funds, exchange traded funds ("ETFs") or other investment pools (generally including a management fee and fund expenses, as described in each fund's offering materials), mark-ups and mark-downs, spreads paid to market makers, fees for trades executed away from the custodian, wire transfer fees and other fees and taxes on brokerage accounts and securities transactions.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. For additional information, please see Item 5 of our Brochure.

Questions to Ask Us:

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments.

- If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Below are two examples to help you understand what this means.

Some of our employees are Registered Representatives of T3 Trading Group LLC (“T3 Trading”), a FINRA and SIPC member and registered broker-dealer. These employees are entitled to receive brokerage commissions in connection with trades made for T3 Trading. T3 Trading employs only proprietary agents and does not have third party customers. You would not be able to place trades with any T3 Representatives.

Our principal owners, Adam Gordon and Larry Chachkes, are also the managing members of Applied Logic Capital Management, LLC (the “Applied Logic Adviser”), the investment adviser to a private fund (the “Private Fund”), and Applied Logic G.P., LLC, the general partner (the “Applied Logic GP” and together with the Applied Logic Adviser, “Applied Logic”) of the Private Fund.

Because VectorSize’s services are limited to U.S.-listed equities, VectorSize will not make any recommendations regarding investment in the Private Fund. However, it is possible that an investor in the Private Fund will utilize the services of VectorSize and therefore pay fees for such services as well as pay the fees to Applied Logic set forth in the Private Fund’s Offering Memorandum and Partnership Agreement. For additional information, please see Items 10, 11, 12, and 14 of our Brochure.

Questions to Ask Us:

- How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our advisers are not compensated by us and instead make money through their outside business activities.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

Yes. Please visit www.Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research us and our financial professionals.

Questions to Ask Us:

- As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history?
- For what type of conduct?

Additional Information

We are classified under SEC regulations as an “internet adviser,” which means that our investment advice to all of our clients is from computer-based algorithms and that we generally offer that advice only through our interactive website. You should direct any questions and concerns you may have by emailing support@getvec.com. An appropriate member of our team will provide you with a response as soon as possible. The team member that reaches out to you may not be an investment adviser representative and may not be licensed to give financial advice.

For additional information about our investment advisory services, or to request copy of our latest Client Relationship Summary, please visit our website at <https://www.getvec.com/> or call us at 305-317-0140.

Questions to Ask Us:

- Who is my primary contact person?
- Is he or she a representative of an investment adviser or a broker-dealer?
- Who can I talk to if I have concerns about how this person is treating me?
