Item 1. Introduction	Rainbook Advisors, LLC (“Rainbook Advisors”) is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as an investment adviser. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ, and it is important for you to understand these differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS , which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.
Item 2. Relationships and Services	What investment services and advice can you provide me? We offer investment advisory services to retail investors (“Users”), through an interactive, online matching platform (“Platform”), that evaluates a User’s current investment adviser or investment adviser representative (“Adviser”) and matches investors with prospective Advisers. Our investment advisory services are limited to those described in the previous sentence. Monitoring We do not manage any assets or provide advice with respect to specific investments. Investment Authority We do not manage any assets. Therefore, we do not exercise any investment authority. Limited Investment Offering Our investment advisory services are limited to evaluating a User’s existing Adviser and making referrals to other Advisers through the Platform. We do not limit the universe of Advisers who we will evaluate for a User who provides sufficient information to evaluate such Adviser at their request. However, we will only refer Advisers who agree to compensate us for client referrals. Account Minimums and Other Requirements There is no fee or minimum level of wealth required to use our Platform. Additional information about Rainbook Advisors’ services including responses to the conversation starters are available on Part 2 of our Form ADV, which is available at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. Conversation Starters. Questions to consider. Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not? <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• How will you choose Advisers to recommend to me?</li><li>• What is the relevant experience of the Advisers that you recommend, including licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?</li></ul>
Item 3. Fees, Costs, Conflicts, and Standard of Conduct	What fees will I pay? In consideration for our services, we will receive a referral fee from the Advisers to whom the User was matched if the User engages the Adviser for advisory services. In some cases, we will receive a portion of the ongoing management fee that the Adviser will charge the User should that User become a client of the Adviser (which could be a fee based on assets under management or another metric). The fee arrangements are mutually agreed upon between Rainbook Advisors and the advisers. We do not charge any fees to Users to use our Platform. Additional information about our firm’s fees are included in Item 5 of Part 2 of Form ADV, which is available at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. However, you will only pay fees to the Adviser that you hire to provide you with investment advice. You will not pay us any fees. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. Conversation Starter. Questions to consider. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give an Adviser $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?</li></ul>

Item 3. Fees, Costs, Conflicts, and Standard of Conduct	What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have? When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide to you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Advisers may pay us different amounts in fees based upon, among other factors, the fee arrangement with each Adviser. This creates a potential conflict of interest for us as we would have an incentive to refer Users to Advisers that pay higher levels of fees.</li></ul> Conversation Starter. — Questions to consider. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?</li></ul> Additional information about Rainbook Advisors' conflicts of interest is available on Part 2 of our Form ADV, which is available at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. How do your financial professionals make money? Our financial professionals are compensated indirectly based on the revenue generated from Adviser referral activities. As such, they have an incentive to refer Users to Advisers.
