Relationships and Services

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer investment advisory services to retail investors, including individuals, trusts, and retirement accounts and institutional investors. Our principal service is ongoing portfolio management on a discretionary basis — we decide which investments to buy or sell for your account without asking you in advance.

- ▶ We review your portfolio, investment strategy, and investments typically on a quarterly/yearly basis.
- ▶ We offer financial planning and consulting services for an additional fee or as part of our advisory relationship.
- ▶ We generally require a $250,000 minimum account size (we may waive this at our discretion).
- ▶ We do not limit our investment recommendations to proprietary products or to a limited menu of products.

For additional information, please see Items 4, 7, and 8 of our Form ADV Part 2A brochure.

Fees, Costs, Conflicts, and Standard of Conduct

What fees will I pay?

We charge an ongoing asset-based fee, typically billed quarterly/daily in arrears or sometimes in advance, based on the value of your account. Because our fees are based on the value of your assets, we have a direct incentive to increase your account value. We work to achieve this growth by carefully selecting securities that match your risk tolerance and circumstances, ensuring they have appropriate liquidity and transparent market values.

You will also pay other fees to third parties, such as custodian fees, mutual fund/ETF expenses, brokerage commissions, and transaction charges.

⚠ You will pay fees & costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees & costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees & costs you are paying.

Ask Your Financial Professional

- ◆ Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments.
- ◆ If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

For additional information, see Item 5 of our Form ADV Part 2A brochure.

What are your legal obligations to me? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.

Proprietary Investments: We often buy and sell securities for our own accounts that we have also recommend to clients. The firm will not intentionally favour a proprietary account over a Client account, nor will it knowingly permit a proprietary account to trade ahead of a Client account. However, because of a specific price action in certain securities it could be misconstrued that our actions have favoured a proprietary account. To mitigate or remedy any conflicts of interest or perceived conflicts of interest, we will monitor our proprietary and personal trading reports for adherence to our code of ethics as detailed item 11 in our form ADV.
