Item 5 Information About Your Advisory Business - Employees, Clients, and Compensation

Responses to this Item help us understand your business, assist us in preparing for on-site examinations, and provide us with data we use when making regulatory policy. Part 1A Instruction 5.a. provides additional guidance to newly formed advisers for completing this Item 5.

Employees

If you are organized as a sole proprietorship, include yourself as an employee in your responses to Item 5.A. and Items 5.B.(1), (2), (3), (4), and (5). If an employee performs more than one function, you should count that employee in each of your responses to Items 5.B.(1), (2), (3), (4), and (5).

- A. Approximately how many employees do you have? Include full- and part-time employees but do not include any clerical workers.

- B. (1) Approximately how many of the employees reported in 5.A. perform investment advisory functions (including research)?
2
- (2) Approximately how many of the employees reported in 5.A. are registered representatives of a broker-dealer?

Clients

In your responses to Items 5.C. and 5.D. do not include as "clients" the investors in a private fund you advise, unless you have a separate advisory relationship with those investors.

Schedule D - Miscellaneous

You may use the space below to explain a response to an Item or to provide any other information.

Advisory fees will be calculated by the Advisor and deducted either by our firm or the custodian. Fees are negotiable. As part of this process, if our firm deducts fees directly from the client's account(s), clients understand the following: a) Clients must provide our firm with written authorization permitting direct payment of advisory fees from their account(s) maintained by a custodian who is independent of our firm; b) Our firm sends quarterly statements to the client showing the fee amount, the value of the assets upon which the fee is based, and the specific manner in which the fee is calculated as well as disclosing that it is the client's responsibility to verify the accuracy of fee calculation, and that the custodian does not determine its accuracy; and c) The account custodian sends a statement to the client, at least quarterly, showing all account disbursements, including advisory fees. If the clients custodian deducts fees from the client's account, our firm does not follow the above mentioned procedures.
