Item 5 Information About Your Advisory Business - Employees, Clients, and Compensation

Responses to this Item help us understand your business, assist us in preparing for on-site examinations, and provide us with data we use when making regulatory policy. Part 1A Instruction 5.a. provides additional guidance to newly formed advisers for completing this Item 5.

Employees

If you are organized as a sole proprietorship, include yourself as an employee in your responses to Item 5.A. and Items 5.B.(1), (2), (3), (4), and (5). If an employee performs more than one function, you should count that employee in each of your responses to Items 5.B.(1), (2), (3), (4), and (5).

A. Approximately how many employees do you have? Include full- and part-time employees but do not include any clerical workers.

- B. (1) Approximately how many of the employees reported in 5.A. perform investment advisory functions (including research)?
- (2) Approximately how many of the employees reported in 5.A. are registered representatives of a broker-dealer?

0
- (6) Approximately how many firms or other persons solicit advisory clients on your behalf?

In your response to Item 5.B.(6), do not count any of your employees and count a firm only once – do not count each of the firm’s employees that solicit on your behalf.

Clients

In your responses to Items 5.C. and 5.D. do not include as "clients" the investors in a private fund you advise, unless you have a separate advisory relationship with those investors.

- C. (1) To approximately how many clients for whom you do not have regulatory assets under management did you provide investment advisory services during your most recently completed fiscal year?

The category "business development companies" consists of companies that have made an election pursuant to section 54 of the Investment Company Act of 1940. Unless you provide advisory services pursuant to an investment advisory contract to an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, do not answer (1)(d) or (3)(d) below.

Indicate the approximate number of your clients and amount of your total regulatory assets under management (reported in Item 5.F. below) attributable to each of the following type of client. If you have fewer than 5 clients in a particular category (other than (d), (e), and (f)) you may check Item 5.D.(2) rather than respond to Item 5.D.(1).

If a client fits into more than one category, select one category that most accurately represents the client to avoid double counting clients and assets. If the remaining amount is at least $10 billion in regulatory assets under management, complete Question (a). End of year refers to the date used to calculate your regulatory assets under management for purposes of your annual updating amendment . Mid-year is the date six months before the end of year date. Each column should add up to 100% and numbers should be rounded to the nearest percent.

Investments in derivatives, registered investment companies, business development companies, and pooled investment vehicles should be reported in those categories. Do not report those investments based on related or underlying portfolio assets. Cash equivalents include bank deposits, certificates of deposit, bankers' acceptances and similar bank instruments.

Some assets could be classified into more than one category or require discretion about which category applies. You may use your own internal methodologies and the conventions of your service providers in determining how to categorize assets, so long as the methodologies or conventions are consistently applied and consistent with information you report internally and to current and prospective clients. However, you should not double count assets, and your responses must be consistent with any instructions or other guidance relating to this Section.

Item 12 Small Businesses
The SEC is required by the Regulatory Flexibility Act to consider the effect of its regulations on small entities. In order to do this, we need to determine whether you meet the definition of "small business" or "small organization" under rule 0-7.
Answer this Item 12 only if you are registered or registering with the SEC and you indicated in response to Item 5.F.(2)(c) that you have regulatory assets under management of less than $25 million. You are not required to answer this Item 12 if you are filing for initial registration as a state adviser, amending a current state registration, or switching from SEC to state registration.
For purposes of this Item 12 only:
- Total Assets refers to the total assets of a firm, rather than the assets managed on behalf of clients. In determining your or another person's total assets, you may use the total assets shown on a current balance sheet (but use total assets reported on a consolidated balance sheet with subsidiaries included, if that amount is larger). Control means the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of a person, whether through ownership of securities, by contract, or otherwise. Any person that directly or indirectly has the right to vote 25 percent or more of the voting securities, or is entitled to 25 percent or more of the profits, of another person is presumed to control the other person.

Schedule D - Miscellaneous

You may use the space below to explain a response to an Item or to provide any other information.

The regulatory assets under management reported throughout this Form ADV are calculated as of December 31, 2025. The gross assets of EarthDaily Holdings, LP have been excluded from the registrant's overall regulatory assets under management since including them would result in the double counting of assets due to how certain funds are structured. Due to one of the ultimate beneficial owners across the SEREY Funds being an insurance company, SEREY accounts A, B, C, D, and Z audits are required by the investor to be prepared according to the Statutory Accounting practices prescribed by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners of the USA ("NAIC"). The registrant and its affiliates create limited partnerships, limited liability companies, or similar investment vehicles which are comprised of one or more investors. Similar to entities structured as traditional pooled investment vehicles, the registrant and its affiliates typically act as general partner, managing member, or in a similar capacity and sometimes also serve as the investment adviser for these investment entities. These entities are created to facilitate certain investments on behalf of clients. These structures are generally utilized for tax efficiency and limited liability reasons, or as a structure to aggregate investments in a single investment across multiple clients. Depending on the specific structure and purpose of these entities, certain of these entities are not listed as “private funds” in Section 7.B of Schedule D, and are not treated as “pooled investment vehicles” in Item 5.D, but instead categorized based on the type of underlying client. A complete list of all such investment entities and their related general partners and managing members is available to the SEC upon request.
