If "yes," then for each private fund that you advise, you must complete a Section 7.B.\(1\) of Schedule D, except in certain circumstances described in the next sentence and in Instruction 6 of the Instructions to Part 1A. You must, instead, complete Section 7.B.\(2\) of Schedule D.

In either case, if you seek to preserve the anonymity of a private fund client by maintaining its identity in your books and records in numerical or alphabetical code, or similar designation, pursuant to rule 204-2(d), you may identify the private fund in Section 7.B.(1) or 7.B.(2) of Schedule D using the same code or designation in place of the fund's name.

Schedule D - Miscellaneous

You may use the space below to explain a response to an Item or to provide any other information.

In response to Item 5.E, Compensation Arrangements: GID Multifamily Investment Management LLC ("GID"), its general partners and affiliates are expected to receive certain supplemental fees and compensation with respect to portfolio investments to the extent permissible under the applicable fund governing documents. Please see Form ADV Part 2A Item 5 for additional information about all fees and compensation received by the firm. // GID currently owns, and is permitted to own in the future, investments through a proprietary account to which an affiliate of the Company provides services. Affiliates of the Company serve, and intend in the future to serve, as co-investors in joint ventures with unaffiliated investors where the latter maintain significant approval rights over the management of the joint ventures. Such proprietary accounts and joint ventures are not securities and thus are not categorized as a Fund, are not included in Regulatory Assets under Management ("RAUM") or reported in dollars in custody and are not considered "clients" for any purpose in the ADV Part 1. // GID considers its master-feeder structures to be one client and does not count the feeder funds as a separate client for the purpose of calculating responses to any question in this ADV. // In response to Item 6.B.(1), Other Business Activities, GID has answered "no" because the investment manager itself does not participate in any other business activities. However, GID has affiliates that primarily provide services in the multifamily or industrial real estate business, including property management, property accounting, insurance services, construction and development management. Additionally, GID's affiliates receive reimbursements related to various services provided as more fully discussed in the ADV Part 2A. // Certain funds make investments through splitters ("specialty vehicles") that GID forms to facilitate investments for tax, regulatory or other reasons. The specialty vehicles have not been separately reported in Section 7.A or 7.B of Schedule D, but any assets attributable to such specialty vehicles have been consolidated and reported with the fund to which they relate. A list of omitted entities will be provided to the SEC upon request. // In response to Item 8.E, GID has answered "yes" because it uses real estate brokers within the terms of its funds' governing documents. Although the GID does not intend to regularly engage in public securities transactions, it reserves the right to distribute securities to investors in a fund or sell securities, including through using a broker-dealer, such as where a public trading market exists. // GID and its relying advisers have custody of pooled investment vehicle client assets because its related persons serve as the general partners of the pooled investment vehicles. Cash and securities for which these related persons have custody are included in Item 9.B. Further, Item 9.B excludes uncalled capital that is included in regulatory assets under management in Item 5. // GID has established special purpose vehicles (each an "SPV") to act as the general partners of its private funds. The SPVs have not registered with the Commission in reliance on the positions expressed in the ABA No-Action Letter dated December 8, 2005, and affirmed in the ABA No-Action Letter dated January 18, 2012. // With respect to Schedule B and Section 4.B of Schedule R, there are no 25% or greater economic owners of GID Multifamily Investment Management Holding LLC or GID Industrial Advisers Holding LLC to include on these schedules.
