Disclosure Summary

Disclosure Information

What you should know about reported disclosure events:

(1) Certain thresholds must be met before an event is reported to IARD, for example:

- A law enforcement agency must file formal charges before an Investment Adviser Representative is required to report a particular criminal event.;
- A customer dispute must involve allegations that an Investment Adviser Representative engaged in activity that violates certain rules or conduct governing the industry and that the activity resulted in damages of at least $5,000.

(2) Disclosure events in IAPD reports come from different sources:

As mentioned in the "About IAPD" section on page 1 of this report, information contained in IAPD comes from Investment Adviser Representatives, firms and regulators. When more than one of these sources reports information for the same disclosure event, all versions of the event will appear in the IAPD report. The different versions will be separated by a solid line with the reporting source labeled.

(3) There are different statuses and dispositions for disclosure events:

- A disclosure event may have a status of pending, on appeal, or final.
 - A "pending" disclosure event involves allegations that have not been proven or formally adjudicated.
 - A disclosure event that is "on appeal" involves allegations that have been adjudicated but are currently being appealed.
 - A "final" disclosure event has been concluded and its resolution is not subject to change.
- A final disclosure event generally has a disposition of adjudicated, settled or otherwise resolved.
 - An "adjudicated" matter includes a disposition by (1) a court of law in a criminal or civil matter, or (2) an administrative panel in an action brought by a regulator that is contested by the party charged with some alleged wrongdoing.
 - A "settled" matter generally represents a disposition wherein the parties involved in a dispute reach an agreement to resolve the matter. Please note that Investment Adviser Representatives and firms may choose to settle customer disputes or regulatory matters for business or other reasons.
 - A "resolved" matter usually includes a disposition wherein no payment is made to the customer or there is no finding of wrongdoing on the part of the Investment Adviser Representative. Such matters generally involve customer disputes.

(4) You may wish to contact the Investment Adviser Representatives to obtain further information regarding any of the disclosure events contained in this IAPD report.

DISCLOSURE EVENT DETAILS

When evaluating this information, please keep in mind that some items may involve pending actions or allegations that may be contested and have not been resolved or proven. The event may, in the end, be withdrawn, dismissed, resolved in favor of the Investment Adviser Representative, or concluded through a negotiated settlement with no admission or finding of wrongdoing.

This report provides the information exactly as it was reported to the Investment Adviser Registration Depository. Some of the specific data fields contained in the report may be blank if the information was not provided.

Allegations: Without admitting or denying the findings, Kinder consented to the sanctions and to the entry of findings that he unsuitably recommended that five customers, including three senior investors, engage in mutual-fund switching and short-term trading of UITs. The findings stated that Kinder routinely recommended that these customers purchase UITs and then sell them well before their maturity dates. The majority of the UITs that Kinder recommended had maturity dates of at least 24 months. Nevertheless, Kinder repeatedly recommended that his customers sell their UIT positions less than a year after purchase often in as little as two to four months - and that they use the proceeds from these short-term sales to purchase other UITs with additional sales charges. Likewise, Kinder recommended that these customers purchase Class A-share mutual funds, liquidate those positions in less than 12 months, and then use the proceeds to purchase shares of other front-loaded funds. Kinder's recommendations caused the customers to incur more than $98,000 in excessive sales charges, and were unsuitable in view of the frequency and cost of the transactions. Kinder willfully failed to amend his Form U4 to disclose multiple outstanding liens and judgments against him. Kinder signed and submitted to his member firm an annual compliance attestation in which he stated that he had reviewed his Form U4 and found all information to be accurate and up to date.

Current Status:

Resolution:

Acceptance, Waiver & Consent(AWC)

Does the order constitute a final order based on violations of any laws or regulations that prohibit fraudulent, manipulative, or deceptive conduct?

No

Resolution Date:

01/26/2018

Sanctions Ordered:

Civil and Administrative Penalty(ies)/Fine(s)
Suspension

Other: Kinder understands that this settlement includes a finding, that he willfully omitted to state a material fact on a Form U4, and that under Section 3(a)(39)(F) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Article 111, Section 4 of FINRA's By-Laws, this omission makes him subject to a statutory disqualification with respect to association with a member.

Kinder submitted a sworn financial statement and demonstrated a limited ability to pay. Kinder's limited ability to pay was considered in connection with the monetary sanctions imposed in this matter. In light of Kinder's financial status, the sanction does not include disgorgement.

If the regulator is the SEC, CFTC, or an SRO, did the action result in a finding of a willful violation or failure to supervise?

No

(1) willfully violated any provision of the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Commodity Exchange Act, or any rule or regulation under any of such Acts, or any of the rules of the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board, or to have been unable to comply with any provision of such Act, rule or regulation?
