Disclosure Summary

Disclosure Information

What you should know about reported disclosure events:

(1) Certain thresholds must be met before an event is reported to IARD, for example:

- A law enforcement agency must file formal charges before an Investment Adviser Representative is required to report a particular criminal event.;
- A customer dispute must involve allegations that an Investment Adviser Representative engaged in activity that violates certain rules or conduct governing the industry and that the activity resulted in damages of at least $5,000.

(2) Disclosure events in IAPD reports come from different sources:

As mentioned in the "About IAPD" section on page 1 of this report, information contained in IAPD comes from Investment Adviser Representatives, firms and regulators. When more than one of these sources reports information for the same disclosure event, all versions of the event will appear in the IAPD report. The different versions will be separated by a solid line with the reporting source labeled.

(3) There are different statuses and dispositions for disclosure events:

- A disclosure event may have a status of pending, on appeal, or final.
 - A "pending" disclosure event involves allegations that have not been proven or formally adjudicated.
 - A disclosure event that is "on appeal" involves allegations that have been adjudicated but are currently being appealed.
 - A "final" disclosure event has been concluded and its resolution is not subject to change.
- A final disclosure event generally has a disposition of adjudicated, settled or otherwise resolved.
 - An "adjudicated" matter includes a disposition by (1) a court of law in a criminal or civil matter, or (2) an administrative panel in an action brought by a regulator that is contested by the party charged with some alleged wrongdoing.
 - A "settled" matter generally represents a disposition wherein the parties involved in a dispute reach an agreement to resolve the matter. Please note that Investment Adviser Representatives and firms may choose to settle customer disputes or regulatory matters for business or other reasons.
 - A "resolved" matter usually includes a disposition wherein no payment is made to the customer or there is no finding of wrongdoing on the part of the Investment Adviser Representative. Such matters generally involve customer disputes.

(4) You may wish to contact the Investment Adviser Representatives to obtain further information regarding any of the disclosure events contained in this IAPD report.

Disclosure 1 of 1

Reporting Source: Individual

Employing firm when activities occurred which led to the complaint: Simplicity Wealth

Allegations: In April 2023, Mr. Cantrell became the agent of record for Mr. [REDACTED]'s existing Fidelity & Guaranty annuity, which had been originally purchased in 2020 through a prior, now-deceased advisor. Mr. Cantrell conducted a comprehensive review of the client's financial profile using the Retirement Analyzer software, incorporating an intake form completed by Mr. [REDACTED].

Analysis revealed a projected shortfall between the client's anticipated Social Security benefits and his monthly expenses at age 65. To bridge this gap, Mr. Cantrell recommended an American Equity annuity designed to provide guaranteed lifetime income. Mr. [REDACTED] participated in multiple discovery and planning meetings where the product features, risks, and benefits were discussed.

At no point during the engagement did the client express a lack of understanding. The recommendation was based on the financial data and retirement goals provided by the client. Mr. Cantrell maintains that the recommendation was suitable, met the client's stated objectives for lifetime income, and was made in good faith. The complaint was only initiated after the client transitioned to a different firm.
