Disclosure Summary

Disclosure Information

What you should know about reported disclosure events:

(1) Certain thresholds must be met before an event is reported to IARD, for example:

- A law enforcement agency must file formal charges before an Investment Adviser Representative is required to report a particular criminal event.;
- A customer dispute must involve allegations that an Investment Adviser Representative engaged in activity that violates certain rules or conduct governing the industry and that the activity resulted in damages of at least $5,000.

(2) Disclosure events in IAPD reports come from different sources:

As mentioned in the "About IAPD" section on page 1 of this report, information contained in IAPD comes from Investment Adviser Representatives, firms and regulators. When more than one of these sources reports information for the same disclosure event, all versions of the event will appear in the IAPD report. The different versions will be separated by a solid line with the reporting source labeled.

(3) There are different statuses and dispositions for disclosure events:

- A disclosure event may have a status of pending, on appeal, or final.
  - A "pending" disclosure event involves allegations that have not been proven or formally adjudicated.
  - A disclosure event that is "on appeal" involves allegations that have been adjudicated but are currently being appealed.
  - A "final" disclosure event has been concluded and its resolution is not subject to change.
- A final disclosure event generally has a disposition of adjudicated, settled or otherwise resolved.
  - An "adjudicated" matter includes a disposition by (1) a court of law in a criminal or civil matter, or (2) an administrative panel in an action brought by a regulator that is contested by the party charged with some alleged wrongdoing.
  - A "settled" matter generally represents a disposition wherein the parties involved in a dispute reach an agreement to resolve the matter. Please note that Investment Adviser Representatives and firms may choose to settle customer disputes or regulatory matters for business or other reasons.
  - A "resolved" matter usually includes a disposition wherein no payment is made to the customer or there is no finding of wrongdoing on the part of the Investment Adviser Representative. Such matters generally involve customer disputes.

Broker Statement	Claimants alleged that UBS Financial Services Incorporated of Puerto Rico and UBS Financial Services Inc. unsuitably recommended that Claimants concentrate their accounts in the Closed End Funds invested in Puerto Rico securities. I was not named as a party in this matter and I deny these allegations in their totality. I recommended high quality portfolios that included primarily AAA/GNMA/Target funds and Puerto Rico Sales Tax Bonds (A+ rated at the time of purchase) for the income component and UBS Portfolio Management Program accounts for the equity component. I kept extensive notes regarding my interactions and recommendations to the clients, which included examples of the diligence I used when recommending transactions. The claimants initiated an arbitration despite the fact that each and every one of their accounts were profitable, overall. Specifically, Claimants' UBS accounts, combined, had a very large overall profit, including large profits on their investments in the Funds. As in most FINRA arbitrations the basis for the award was not outlined by the arbitrators in the decision. However, the overall award was materially less than the claim and no costs or other fees were awarded to the claimants. I was not required to contribute to the award.
