IAPD Information About Representatives

IAPD offers information on all current-and many former representatives. Investors are strongly encouraged to use IAPD to check the background of representatives before deciding to conduct, or continue to conduct, business with them.

What is included in a IAPD report?

IAPD reports for individual representatives include information such as employment history, professional qualifications, disciplinary actions, criminal convictions, civil judgments and arbitration awards.

It is important to note that the information contained in an IAPD report may include pending actions or allegations that may be contested, unresolved or unproven. In the end, these actions or allegations may be resolved in favor of the representative, or concluded through a negotiated settlement with no admission or finding of wrongdoing.

Where did this information come from?

The information contained in IAPD comes from the Investment Adviser Registration Depository (IARD) and FINRA's Central Registration Depository, or CRD, (see more on CRD below) and is a combination of:

- information the states require representatives and firms to submit as part of the registration and licensing process, and
- information that state regulators report regarding disciplinary actions or allegations against representatives.

How current is this information?

Generally, representatives are required to update their professional and disciplinary information in IARD within 30 days.

Need help interpreting this report?

For help understanding how to read this report, please consult NASAA's IAPD Tips page <http://www.nasaa.org/IAPD/IARReports.cfm>

What if I want to check the background of an Individual Broker or Brokerage Firm?

To check the background of an Individual Broker or Brokerage firm, you can search for the firm or individual in IAPD. If your search is successful, click on the link provided to view the available licensing and registration information in FINRA's BrokerCheck website.

Are there other resources I can use to check the background of investment professionals?

It is recommended that you learn as much as possible about an individual representative or Investment Adviser firm before deciding to work with them. Your state securities regulator can help you research individuals and certain firms doing business in your state. The contact information for state securities regulators can be found on the website of the North American Securities Administrators Association <http://www.nasaa.org>

Disclosure Summary

Disclosure Information

What you should know about reported disclosure events:

(1) Certain thresholds must be met before an event is reported to IARD, for example:

- A law enforcement agency must file formal charges before an Investment Adviser Representative is required to report a particular criminal event.;
- A customer dispute must involve allegations that an Investment Adviser Representative engaged in activity that violates certain rules or conduct governing the industry and that the activity resulted in damages of at least $5,000.

(2) Disclosure events in IAPD reports come from different sources:

As mentioned in the "About IAPD" section on page 1 of this report, information contained in IAPD comes from Investment Adviser Representatives, firms and regulators. When more than one of these sources reports information for the same disclosure event, all versions of the event will appear in the IAPD report. The different versions will be separated by a solid line with the reporting source labeled.

(3) There are different statuses and dispositions for disclosure events:

- A disclosure event may have a status of pending, on appeal, or final.
  - A "pending" disclosure event involves allegations that have not been proven or formally adjudicated.
  - A disclosure event that is "on appeal" involves allegations that have been adjudicated but are currently being appealed.
  - A "final" disclosure event has been concluded and its resolution is not subject to change.
- A final disclosure event generally has a disposition of adjudicated, settled or otherwise resolved.
  - An "adjudicated" matter includes a disposition by (1) a court of law in a criminal or civil matter, or (2) an administrative panel in an action brought by a regulator that is contested by the party charged with some alleged wrongdoing.
  - A "settled" matter generally represents a disposition wherein the parties involved in a dispute reach an agreement to resolve the matter. Please note that Investment Adviser Representatives and firms may choose to settle customer disputes or regulatory matters for business or other reasons.
  - A "resolved" matter usually includes a disposition wherein no payment is made to the customer or there is no finding of wrongdoing on the part of the Investment Adviser Representative. Such matters generally involve customer disputes.

(4) You may wish to contact the Investment Adviser Representatives to obtain further information regarding any of the disclosure events contained in this IAPD report.

Employing firm when activity occurred which led to the action: LEDGERPLUS FINANCIAL SERVICES LLC

- Allegations:
1. On August 29, 2016 the Trust was executed as a result of a settlement which is attached as Exhibit "A." Mr. Franson has always been the trustee of the Trust.
  2. The only beneficiary of the Trust is [REDACTED].
  3. The Plaintiff is disabled and a recovering addict. The Trust was created for the purpose of protecting her and providing for her supplemental or special need
  4. Since being appointed Trustee in 2016 Mr. Franson has never provided a formal trust accounting to [REDACTED] as required by law. In addition , Mr. Franson did not provide any informal accounting or summaries to the beneficiary until she retained counsel.
  5. Since funding of the Trust, Mr. Franson has improperly and negligently made over 70 distributions directly to beneficiary' s father, [REDACTED], a personal friend or his, without any documentation showing those funds were being spent on the beneficiary's behalf let alone for the beneficiary's supplemental needs. There was simply no follow up as to how the funds were being spent by [REDACTED] and Mr. Franson never requested any documentation from [REDACTED].

6. The distributions made directly to this third party exceed $106,000.00 and were used for the third party's personal expenses and enjoyment. [REDACTED] was never provided any accounting, formal or informal, of these transactions.

7. Mr. Franson's failure to provide accountings to the beneficiary masked the improper distributions and left her in the dark as to whether Trust was being administered properly.

8. Mr. Franson has shown a pattern of non-responsiveness to beneficiary. After years of being kept in the dark, the Plaintiff retained counsel and began the process of determining what happened to the property of the Trust.

9. Mr. Franson is a licensed CPA and as a professional accountant. He operates as trustee out of his accounting firm Ledger Plus.

10. As a CPA Mr. Franson is professionally trained and capable of proper accounting.
