Disclosure Summary

Disclosure Information

What you should know about reported disclosure events:

(1) Certain thresholds must be met before an event is reported to IARD, for example:

- A law enforcement agency must file formal charges before an Investment Adviser Representative is required to report a particular criminal event.;
- A customer dispute must involve allegations that an Investment Adviser Representative engaged in activity that violates certain rules or conduct governing the industry and that the activity resulted in damages of at least $5,000.

(2) Disclosure events in IAPD reports come from different sources:

As mentioned in the "About IAPD" section on page 1 of this report, information contained in IAPD comes from Investment Adviser Representatives, firms and regulators. When more than one of these sources reports information for the same disclosure event, all versions of the event will appear in the IAPD report. The different versions will be separated by a solid line with the reporting source labeled.

(3) There are different statuses and dispositions for disclosure events:

- A disclosure event may have a status of pending, on appeal, or final.
 - A "pending" disclosure event involves allegations that have not been proven or formally adjudicated.
 - A disclosure event that is "on appeal" involves allegations that have been adjudicated but are currently being appealed.
 - A "final" disclosure event has been concluded and its resolution is not subject to change.
- A final disclosure event generally has a disposition of adjudicated, settled or otherwise resolved.
 - An "adjudicated" matter includes a disposition by (1) a court of law in a criminal or civil matter, or (2) an administrative panel in an action brought by a regulator that is contested by the party charged with some alleged wrongdoing.
 - A "settled" matter generally represents a disposition wherein the parties involved in a dispute reach an agreement to resolve the matter. Please note that Investment Adviser Representatives and firms may choose to settle customer disputes or regulatory matters for business or other reasons.
 - A "resolved" matter usually includes a disposition wherein no payment is made to the customer or there is no finding of wrongdoing on the part of the Investment Adviser Representative. Such matters generally involve customer disputes.

(4) You may wish to contact the Investment Adviser Representatives to obtain further information regarding any of the disclosure events contained in this IAPD report.

This disclosure event involves an unsatisfied and outstanding judgment or lien against the Investment Adviser Representative.

Disclosure 1 of 5

Reporting Source:	Individual
Judgment/Lien Holder:	State of SC
Judgment/Lien Amount:	$2,438.00
Judgment/Lien Type:	Tax
Date Filed with Court:	12/15/2014
Date Individual Learned:	09/15/2016
Type of Court:	State Court
Name of Court:	State of SC
Location of Court:	Florence County, SC
Docket/Case #:	51794139
Judgment/Lien Outstanding?	Yes

Broker Statement

The lien represents a proposed assessment from the State of SC for failure to file monthly sales tax returns after I helped my daughter in selling lemonade at the festival in SC in 2010. The state had required that we have a sales tax ID issued before the event, and then they expected monthly sales tax returns to be filed afterwards. I did not want to file zero tax returns month after month and I contacted the tax department to close the account which apparently did not occur. The state says that they sent collection notices but they were sent to my previous address, 104 Murchison Drive and were never forwarded to me and I never received them. I therefore had no knowledge of this lien until my employer brought this issue to my attention via email on 09/14/2016. I have now filed the necessary zero returns with the state and they have assured me that the liens will be removed and that nothing will be owed.
