Disclosure Summary

Disclosure Information

What you should know about reported disclosure events:

(1) Certain thresholds must be met before an event is reported to IARD, for example:

- A law enforcement agency must file formal charges before an Investment Adviser Representative is required to report a particular criminal event.;
- A customer dispute must involve allegations that an Investment Adviser Representative engaged in activity that violates certain rules or conduct governing the industry and that the activity resulted in damages of at least $5,000.

(2) Disclosure events in IAPD reports come from different sources:

As mentioned in the "About IAPD" section on page 1 of this report, information contained in IAPD comes from Investment Adviser Representatives, firms and regulators. When more than one of these sources reports information for the same disclosure event, all versions of the event will appear in the IAPD report. The different versions will be separated by a solid line with the reporting source labeled.

(3) There are different statuses and dispositions for disclosure events:

- A disclosure event may have a status of pending, on appeal, or final.
  - A "pending" disclosure event involves allegations that have not been proven or formally adjudicated.
  - A disclosure event that is "on appeal" involves allegations that have been adjudicated but are currently being appealed.
  - A "final" disclosure event has been concluded and its resolution is not subject to change.
- A final disclosure event generally has a disposition of adjudicated, settled or otherwise resolved.
  - An "adjudicated" matter includes a disposition by (1) a court of law in a criminal or civil matter, or (2) an administrative panel in an action brought by a regulator that is contested by the party charged with some alleged wrongdoing.
  - A "settled" matter generally represents a disposition wherein the parties involved in a dispute reach an agreement to resolve the matter. Please note that Investment Adviser Representatives and firms may choose to settle customer disputes or regulatory matters for business or other reasons.
  - A "resolved" matter usually includes a disposition wherein no payment is made to the customer or there is no finding of wrongdoing on the part of the Investment Adviser Representative. Such matters generally involve customer disputes.

(4) You may wish to contact the Investment Adviser Representatives to obtain further information regarding any of the disclosure events contained in this IAPD report.

Disclosure 1 of 1

Reporting Source: Firm

Product Type: No Product

Reporting Source: Individual

Firm Name: Morgan Stanley

Termination Type: Discharged

Termination Date: 10/09/2020

Allegations: Concerns that the representative failed to adhere to restrictions imposed by the Firm when it approved a personal passive investment in a private company and engaged in activities that were inconsistent with applicable firm procedures and the restrictions, including but not limited to signing a memorandum referencing compensation from the same company. The Firm did not identify any Firm clients who invested in the private company based on the representative's activities.

Product Type: No Product

Broker Statement I vigorously disagree with my prior firm's concerns/allegations . This was a properly

MS Compliance approved OBI ( Outside Business Activity/Investment, one of many ) personal private placement investment for me, personally. This had nothing to do with clients . MS acknowledges that they did not find any activities involving any clients, as there were none. I acknowledged receiving an informal memo from the private Co. about possible compensation, but I did not request nor receive any compensation from this private Company. In fact, I also provided two sworn Affidavits from the two officers from the private Company that the informal memo had been rescinded , and they provided statements stating that I did not request any compensation, nor received any compensation, that no MS clients were solicited , and that none of the activities in the informal memo were acted on. I strongly believe my actions were indeed consistent with firm policies. I have never had a prior compliance nor client issue during my 32 year career.
