IAPD Information About Representatives

IAPD offers information on all current-and many former representatives. Investors are strongly encouraged to use IAPD to check the background of representatives before deciding to conduct, or continue to conduct, business with them.

What is included in a IAPD report?

IAPD reports for individual representatives include information such as employment history, professional qualifications, disciplinary actions, criminal convictions, civil judgments and arbitration awards.

It is important to note that the information contained in an IAPD report may include pending actions or allegations that may be contested, unresolved or unproven. In the end, these actions or allegations may be resolved in favor of the representative, or concluded through a negotiated settlement with no admission or finding of wrongdoing.

Where did this information come from?

The information contained in IAPD comes from the Investment Adviser Registration Depository (IARD) and FINRA's Central Registration Depository, or CRD, (see more on CRD below) and is a combination of:

- information the states require representatives and firms to submit as part of the registration and licensing process, and
- information that state regulators report regarding disciplinary actions or allegations against representatives.

How current is this information?

Generally, representatives are required to update their professional and disciplinary information in IARD within 30 days.

Need help interpreting this report?

For help understanding how to read this report, please consult NASAA's IAPD Tips page <http://www.nasaa.org/IAPD/IARReports.cfm>

What if I want to check the background of an Individual Broker or Brokerage Firm?

To check the background of an Individual Broker or Brokerage firm, you can search for the firm or individual in IAPD. If your search is successful, click on the link provided to view the available licensing and registration information in FINRA's BrokerCheck website.

Are there other resources I can use to check the background of investment professionals?

It is recommended that you learn as much as possible about an individual representative or Investment Adviser firm before deciding to work with them. Your state securities regulator can help you research individuals and certain firms doing business in your state. The contact information for state securities regulators can be found on the website of the North American Securities Administrators Association <http://www.nasaa.org>

Disclosure Summary

Disclosure Information

What you should know about reported disclosure events:

(1) Certain thresholds must be met before an event is reported to IARD, for example:

- A law enforcement agency must file formal charges before an Investment Adviser Representative is required to report a particular criminal event.;
- A customer dispute must involve allegations that an Investment Adviser Representative engaged in activity that violates certain rules or conduct governing the industry and that the activity resulted in damages of at least $5,000.

(2) Disclosure events in IAPD reports come from different sources:

As mentioned in the "About IAPD" section on page 1 of this report, information contained in IAPD comes from Investment Adviser Representatives, firms and regulators. When more than one of these sources reports information for the same disclosure event, all versions of the event will appear in the IAPD report. The different versions will be separated by a solid line with the reporting source labeled.

(3) There are different statuses and dispositions for disclosure events:

- A disclosure event may have a status of pending, on appeal, or final.
  - A "pending" disclosure event involves allegations that have not been proven or formally adjudicated.
  - A disclosure event that is "on appeal" involves allegations that have been adjudicated but are currently being appealed.
  - A "final" disclosure event has been concluded and its resolution is not subject to change.
- A final disclosure event generally has a disposition of adjudicated, settled or otherwise resolved.
  - An "adjudicated" matter includes a disposition by (1) a court of law in a criminal or civil matter, or (2) an administrative panel in an action brought by a regulator that is contested by the party charged with some alleged wrongdoing.
  - A "settled" matter generally represents a disposition wherein the parties involved in a dispute reach an agreement to resolve the matter. Please note that Investment Adviser Representatives and firms may choose to settle customer disputes or regulatory matters for business or other reasons.
  - A "resolved" matter usually includes a disposition wherein no payment is made to the customer or there is no finding of wrongdoing on the part of the Investment Adviser Representative. Such matters generally involve customer disputes.

(4) You may wish to contact the Investment Adviser Representatives to obtain further information regarding any of the disclosure events contained in this IAPD report.

DISCLOSURE EVENT DETAILS

Reporting Source: Individual

Employing firm when activities occurred which led to the complaint: Alphastar Capital Management

Allegations: Allegations:

Claimant, [REDACTED] (both individually and as executrix of the estate of [REDACTED]), alleges that Edward Philip Schuh, II engaged in misconduct connected to her late mother's investment accounts. The Amended Statement of Claim asserts causes of action including breach of contract, fraud, negligence, breach of fiduciary duty, negligent misrepresentation, violations of FINRA rules, failure to supervise, and financial elder abuse. The core allegation against Mr. Schuh is that he failed to assist the Claimant and her siblings in removing their sister, Amy Wright, as a beneficiary or power of attorney on Ms. [REDACTED]'s accounts, allegedly enabling wrongful activity or loss.

Response:

Mr. Schuh denies all allegations of wrongdoing, asserting that:

He acted at all times in accordance with industry standards and applicable laws. Only Ms. [REDACTED] or her duly authorized power of attorney (Amy Wright at the time) had legal authority to make account changes; Claimant lacked any such authority.

All transactions and fund transfers were initiated or approved directly by Ms. [REDACTED] after Mr. Schuh personally confirmed her intent.

There were no signs that Ms. [REDACTED] was being exploited, and no concerns were raised until Claimant attempted to access the accounts without authorization. Both Mr. Schuh and TD Ameritrade properly refused unauthorized access and appropriately reported Claimant's behavior to the State of California out of caution.

The Answer concludes that Claimant's claims are without merit, requests dismissal of the arbitration in full, and seeks recovery of attorneys' fees and costs. Mr. Schuh also asserts multiple affirmative defenses, including failure to state a claim, expiration of statutes of limitation, estoppel, ratification, good-faith conduct, and compliance with all legal and regulatory requirements.

Product Type: Direct Investment-DPP & LP Interests

Alleged Damages: $1,211,751.00

Arbitration Information

Arbitration/CFTC reparation claim filed with (FINRA, AAA, CFTC, etc.): FINRA

Docket/Case #: 24-01150

Date Notice/Process Served: 06/15/2024

Arbitration Pending? Yes
