IAPD Information About Representatives

IAPD offers information on all current-and many former representatives. Investors are strongly encouraged to use IAPD to check the background of representatives before deciding to conduct, or continue to conduct, business with them.

What is included in a IAPD report?

IAPD reports for individual representatives include information such as employment history, professional qualifications, disciplinary actions, criminal convictions, civil judgments and arbitration awards.

It is important to note that the information contained in an IAPD report may include pending actions or allegations that may be contested, unresolved or unproven. In the end, these actions or allegations may be resolved in favor of the representative, or concluded through a negotiated settlement with no admission or finding of wrongdoing.

Where did this information come from?

The information contained in IAPD comes from the Investment Adviser Registration Depository (IARD) and FINRA's Central Registration Depository, or CRD, (see more on CRD below) and is a combination of:

- information the states require representatives and firms to submit as part of the registration and licensing process, and
- information that state regulators report regarding disciplinary actions or allegations against representatives.

How current is this information?

Generally, representatives are required to update their professional and disciplinary information in IARD within 30 days.

Need help interpreting this report?

For help understanding how to read this report, please consult NASAA's IAPD Tips page <http://www.nasaa.org/IAPD/IARReports.cfm>

What if I want to check the background of an Individual Broker or Brokerage Firm?

To check the background of an Individual Broker or Brokerage firm, you can search for the firm or individual in IAPD. If your search is successful, click on the link provided to view the available licensing and registration information in FINRA's BrokerCheck website.

Are there other resources I can use to check the background of investment professionals?

It is recommended that you learn as much as possible about an individual representative or Investment Adviser firm before deciding to work with them. Your state securities regulator can help you research individuals and certain firms doing business in your state. The contact information for state securities regulators can be found on the website of the North American Securities Administrators Association <http://www.nasaa.org>

Disclosure Summary

Disclosure Information

What you should know about reported disclosure events:

(1) Certain thresholds must be met before an event is reported to IARD, for example:

- A law enforcement agency must file formal charges before an Investment Adviser Representative is required to report a particular criminal event.;
- A customer dispute must involve allegations that an Investment Adviser Representative engaged in activity that violates certain rules or conduct governing the industry and that the activity resulted in damages of at least $5,000.

(2) Disclosure events in IAPD reports come from different sources:

As mentioned in the "About IAPD" section on page 1 of this report, information contained in IAPD comes from Investment Adviser Representatives, firms and regulators. When more than one of these sources reports information for the same disclosure event, all versions of the event will appear in the IAPD report. The different versions will be separated by a solid line with the reporting source labeled.

(3) There are different statuses and dispositions for disclosure events:

- A disclosure event may have a status of pending, on appeal, or final.
 - A "pending" disclosure event involves allegations that have not been proven or formally adjudicated.
 - A disclosure event that is "on appeal" involves allegations that have been adjudicated but are currently being appealed.
 - A "final" disclosure event has been concluded and its resolution is not subject to change.
- A final disclosure event generally has a disposition of adjudicated, settled or otherwise resolved.
 - An "adjudicated" matter includes a disposition by (1) a court of law in a criminal or civil matter, or (2) an administrative panel in an action brought by a regulator that is contested by the party charged with some alleged wrongdoing.
 - A "settled" matter generally represents a disposition wherein the parties involved in a dispute reach an agreement to resolve the matter. Please note that Investment Adviser Representatives and firms may choose to settle customer disputes or regulatory matters for business or other reasons.
 - A "resolved" matter usually includes a disposition wherein no payment is made to the customer or there is no finding of wrongdoing on the part of the Investment Adviser Representative. Such matters generally involve customer disputes.

(4) You may wish to contact the Investment Adviser Representatives to obtain further information regarding any of the disclosure events contained in this IAPD report.

DISCLOSURE EVENT DETAILS

When evaluating this information, please keep in mind that some items may involve pending actions or allegations that may be contested and have not been resolved or proven. The event may, in the end, be withdrawn, dismissed, resolved in favor of the Investment Adviser Representative, or concluded through a negotiated settlement with no admission or finding of wrongdoing.

This report provides the information exactly as it was reported to the Investment Adviser Registration Depository. Some of the specific data fields contained in the report may be blank if the information was not provided.

Allegations: Regarding the customer complaint case 23-03390 [REDACTED] first reported on January 12, 2024, by Arete Wealth Management:
The allegations are not accurate and misleading as there was no complaint against me. The investor, [REDACTED], filed the complaint against the firm, Arete Wealth Management and Arete Advisors. I (Logan Cox) (the representative) am not named. The investor alleged that the firm failed to conduct due diligence. I was not responsible for, nor participated in, firm level due diligence for this offering. The investor is a sophisticated investor and I discussed the risks associated with the investment. I also provided the client with the list of risk factors before the investment. I did not play a role in the management of the investment. The investment was negatively affected by issues arising from a new management team, regulatory interference, and overleverage by said management. As the representative, I was not a named party in the complaint. I acted in good faith and in accordance with applicable law, rules and regulations. I did not participate in settlement negotiations, nor am I party to, or participated in, the settlement.

Termination

This disclosure event involves a situation where the Investment Adviser Representative voluntarily resigned, was discharged or was permitted to resign after allegations were made that accused the Investment Adviser Representative of violating investment-related statutes, regulations, rules or industry standards of conduct; fraud or the wrongful taking of property; or failure to supervise in connection with investment-related statutes, regulations, rules or industry standards of conduct.

Disclosure 1 of 1

Reporting Source: Firm

Firm Name: ARETE WEALTH MANAGEMENT, LLC

Termination Type: Voluntary Resignation

Termination Date: 04/01/2025

Allegations: The firm was actively investigating the Representative for potential violations of securities rules and regulations and firm procedures, including but not limited to:

1. Falsifying a client's net worth;
2. Advocating and potentially soliciting at least one client obtain a line of credit to invest in securities; and
3. Misrepresenting to Compliance the circumstances regarding a client's line of credit.

While under investigation, the Representative quit five minutes before a scheduled mandatory compliance interview.

Product Type: Penny Stock

Reporting Source: Individual

Firm Name: ARETE WEALTH MANAGEMENT, LLC

Termination Type: Voluntary Resignation

Termination Date: 05/01/2025

Allegations: Arete alleges that at the time of my resignation i was under investigation for 1, falsifying a client's net worth, 2. advocating for inappropriate use of lines of credit and 3. misrepresenting circumstances to compliance. They also allege I resigned five minutes before a compliance meeting.

Product Type: No Product

Broker Statement

I do not believe that I violated any securities rules or firm policies. I did not falsify a client's net worth. AWM's written procedures allows for use of leverage, specifically margin, under certain circumstances. A principal of the firm responsible for our supervision was aware of the strategies, and the firm did not place any limitations on them. I am not aware of how I misrepresented anything to compliance.

At the time of my resignation, I was not aware that I was under internal review for potential rule violations.

I believe the comment by Arete regarding the compliance meeting noted is misleading. I did, in fact, attend the scheduled meeting.
