Disclosure Summary

Disclosure Information

What you should know about reported disclosure events:

(1) Certain thresholds must be met before an event is reported to IARD, for example:

- A law enforcement agency must file formal charges before an Investment Adviser Representative is required to report a particular criminal event.;
- A customer dispute must involve allegations that an Investment Adviser Representative engaged in activity that violates certain rules or conduct governing the industry and that the activity resulted in damages of at least $5,000.

(2) Disclosure events in IAPD reports come from different sources:

As mentioned in the "About IAPD" section on page 1 of this report, information contained in IAPD comes from Investment Adviser Representatives, firms and regulators. When more than one of these sources reports information for the same disclosure event, all versions of the event will appear in the IAPD report. The different versions will be separated by a solid line with the reporting source labeled.

(3) There are different statuses and dispositions for disclosure events:

- A disclosure event may have a status of pending, on appeal, or final.
 - A "pending" disclosure event involves allegations that have not been proven or formally adjudicated.
 - A disclosure event that is "on appeal" involves allegations that have been adjudicated but are currently being appealed.
 - A "final" disclosure event has been concluded and its resolution is not subject to change.
- A final disclosure event generally has a disposition of adjudicated, settled or otherwise resolved.
 - An "adjudicated" matter includes a disposition by (1) a court of law in a criminal or civil matter, or (2) an administrative panel in an action brought by a regulator that is contested by the party charged with some alleged wrongdoing.
 - A "settled" matter generally represents a disposition wherein the parties involved in a dispute reach an agreement to resolve the matter. Please note that Investment Adviser Representatives and firms may choose to settle customer disputes or regulatory matters for business or other reasons.
 - A "resolved" matter usually includes a disposition wherein no payment is made to the customer or there is no finding of wrongdoing on the part of the Investment Adviser Representative. Such matters generally involve customer disputes.

(4) You may wish to contact the Investment Adviser Representatives to obtain further information regarding any of the disclosure events contained in this IAPD report.

Disclosure 1 of 1

Reporting Source:	Individual
Employing firm when activities occurred which led to the complaint:	Bankers Life Securities, Inc. and Bankers Life and Casualty Company
Allegations:	On December 15, 2021, a financial representative of the Firm received a written complaint requesting to cancel her Guaranteed Lifetime Income Annuity (GLIA) purchased in October of 2021 from Bankers Life and Casualty Company (BLC), an insurance company affiliate of the Firm. Client submitted an additional complaint received by the financial representative on December 31, 2021 providing the reasoning for the request to cancel the annuity. In the 2nd Complaint, client stated she was recently diagnosed with several health conditions and the GLIA was no longer suitable. In addition she stated the terms of the GLIA were not fully disclosed and asked for the policy to be cancelled without the assessment of surrender charges. BLC determined that the annuity was suitable in light of client's financial circumstances, goals and objectives, but as an accommodation allowed client to withdraw 20% of her annuity without penalty. While the annuity sold to client was not a security and was issued by BLC, the Firm is reporting this complaint because the source of funding for the BLC annuity came from the sale of securities recommended by a financial representative of this Firm.
Product Type:	Other: Equity-Indexed Annuity
Alleged Damages:	$20,000.00
