IAPD Information About Representatives

IAPD offers information on all current-and many former representatives. Investors are strongly encouraged to use IAPD to check the background of representatives before deciding to conduct, or continue to conduct, business with them.

What is included in a IAPD report?

IAPD reports for individual representatives include information such as employment history, professional qualifications, disciplinary actions, criminal convictions, civil judgments and arbitration awards.

It is important to note that the information contained in an IAPD report may include pending actions or allegations that may be contested, unresolved or unproven. In the end, these actions or allegations may be resolved in favor of the representative, or concluded through a negotiated settlement with no admission or finding of wrongdoing.

Where did this information come from?

The information contained in IAPD comes from the Investment Adviser Registration Depository (IARD) and FINRA's Central Registration Depository, or CRD, (see more on CRD below) and is a combination of:

- information the states require representatives and firms to submit as part of the registration and licensing process, and
- information that state regulators report regarding disciplinary actions or allegations against representatives.

How current is this information?

Generally, representatives are required to update their professional and disciplinary information in IARD within 30 days.

Need help interpreting this report?

For help understanding how to read this report, please consult NASAA's IAPD Tips page <http://www.nasaa.org/IAPD/IARReports.cfm>

What if I want to check the background of an Individual Broker or Brokerage Firm?

To check the background of an Individual Broker or Brokerage firm, you can search for the firm or individual in IAPD. If your search is successful, click on the link provided to view the available licensing and registration information in FINRA's BrokerCheck website.

Are there other resources I can use to check the background of investment professionals?

It is recommended that you learn as much as possible about an individual representative or Investment Adviser firm before deciding to work with them. Your state securities regulator can help you research individuals and certain firms doing business in your state. The contact information for state securities regulators can be found on the website of the North American Securities Administrators Association <http://www.nasaa.org>

OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

This section includes information, if any, as provided by the representative regarding other business activities the representative is currently engaged in either as a proprietor, partner, officer, director, employee, trustee, agent, or otherwise. This section does not include non-investment related activity that is exclusively charitable, civic, religious, or fraternal and is recognized as tax exempt.

J.R. Knight, CFP® is the sole owner of and principal licensed Utah real estate broker for F.W.A. Realty located at 670 West Shepard Lane, Suite 101, Farmington, Utah 84025 (start date: May 20, 1992). He occasionally (1-3 hours per month during securities trading hours) represents clients in various types of real estate transactions for which he may receive a real estate commission. In those situations the client is fully informed that Mr. Knight is receiving compensation for his services and that the arrangement presents a conflict of interest-Mr. Knight has a financial incentive to recommend the services of F.W.A. Realty. J.R. Knight, CFP® also owns a 50% interest in East Meadows Homes, a Utah Limited Liability Company (start date: June 11, 2014 and Office location is: 670 West Shepard Lane, Suite 101, Farmington, Utah 84025) which is a company that owns the Class B Member shares (Managing Partner shares) in Land Solutions Partners-East Meadows, LLC. It also manages the East Meadows Mobile Home Park. Mr. Knight spends approximately 20 hours per month during securities trading hours as a managing partner in this business. He also owns a 11.2% interest in Land Solutions Partners-East Meadows, LLC (start date: September 19, 2013 and Office location is: 670 West Shepard Lane, Suite 101, Farmington, Utah 84025) a Limited Liability Company that owns the East Meadows Mobile Home Park located in Vernal, Utah. Land Solutions Partners-East Meadows, LLC Class A Member shares are owned by the investors. Mr. Knight's existing Family Wealth Advisors (FWA) client base/ and non-FWA investors were solicited to invest in Land Solutions Partners-East Meadows, LLC. These private real estate securities transactions are inherently high-risk investments and when advisory clients are solicited to invest in outside projects, a potential conflict of interest exists in that Mr. Knight owns a 50% interest in the East Meadows Homes, LLC and a 11.2% interest in Land Solutions Partners-East Meadows, LLC. Neither East Meadows Homes, LLC or Land Solutions Partners-East Meadows, LLC received upfront commissions for raising the capital necessary to acquire the property and no upfront compensation for negotiating and structuring the syndication. F.W.A. Realty was paid a real estate commission for providing brokerage services to Land Solutions Partners-East Meadows, LLC. Mr. Knight receives compensation from his equity interest in East Meadows Homes, LLC and Land Solutions Partners-East Meadows, LLC based on the success of the company.

Disclosure Summary

Disclosure Information

What you should know about reported disclosure events:

(1) Certain thresholds must be met before an event is reported to IARD, for example:

- A law enforcement agency must file formal charges before an Investment Adviser Representative is required to report a particular criminal event.;
- A customer dispute must involve allegations that an Investment Adviser Representative engaged in activity that violates certain rules or conduct governing the industry and that the activity resulted in damages of at least $5,000.

(2) Disclosure events in IAPD reports come from different sources:

As mentioned in the "About IAPD" section on page 1 of this report, information contained in IAPD comes from Investment Adviser Representatives, firms and regulators. When more than one of these sources reports information for the same disclosure event, all versions of the event will appear in the IAPD report. The different versions will be separated by a solid line with the reporting source labeled.

(3) There are different statuses and dispositions for disclosure events:

- A disclosure event may have a status of pending, on appeal, or final.
 - A "pending" disclosure event involves allegations that have not been proven or formally adjudicated.
 - A disclosure event that is "on appeal" involves allegations that have been adjudicated but are currently being appealed.
 - A "final" disclosure event has been concluded and its resolution is not subject to change.
- A final disclosure event generally has a disposition of adjudicated, settled or otherwise resolved.
 - An "adjudicated" matter includes a disposition by (1) a court of law in a criminal or civil matter, or (2) an administrative panel in an action brought by a regulator that is contested by the party charged with some alleged wrongdoing.
 - A "settled" matter generally represents a disposition wherein the parties involved in a dispute reach an agreement to resolve the matter. Please note that Investment Adviser Representatives and firms may choose to settle customer disputes or regulatory matters for business or other reasons.
 - A "resolved" matter usually includes a disposition wherein no payment is made to the customer or there is no finding of wrongdoing on the part of the Investment Adviser Representative. Such matters generally involve customer disputes.

(4) You may wish to contact the Investment Adviser Representatives to obtain further information regarding any of the disclosure events contained in this IAPD report.

DISCLOSURE EVENT DETAILS
