IAPD Information About Representatives

IAPD offers information on all current-and many former representatives. Investors are strongly encouraged to use IAPD to check the background of representatives before deciding to conduct, or continue to conduct, business with them.

What is included in a IAPD report?

IAPD reports for individual representatives include information such as employment history, professional qualifications, disciplinary actions, criminal convictions, civil judgments and arbitration awards.

It is important to note that the information contained in an IAPD report may include pending actions or allegations that may be contested, unresolved or unproven. In the end, these actions or allegations may be resolved in favor of the representative, or concluded through a negotiated settlement with no admission or finding of wrongdoing.

Where did this information come from?

The information contained in IAPD comes from the Investment Adviser Registration Depository (IARD) and FINRA's Central Registration Depository, or CRD, (see more on CRD below) and is a combination of:

- information the states require representatives and firms to submit as part of the registration and licensing process, and
- information that state regulators report regarding disciplinary actions or allegations against representatives.

How current is this information?

Generally, representatives are required to update their professional and disciplinary information in IARD within 30 days.

Need help interpreting this report?

For help understanding how to read this report, please consult NASAA's IAPD Tips page <http://www.nasaa.org/IAPD/IARReports.cfm>

What if I want to check the background of an Individual Broker or Brokerage Firm?

To check the background of an Individual Broker or Brokerage firm, you can search for the firm or individual in IAPD. If your search is successful, click on the link provided to view the available licensing and registration information in FINRA's BrokerCheck website.

Are there other resources I can use to check the background of investment professionals?

It is recommended that you learn as much as possible about an individual representative or Investment Adviser firm before deciding to work with them. Your state securities regulator can help you research individuals and certain firms doing business in your state. The contact information for state securities regulators can be found on the website of the North American Securities Administrators Association <http://www.nasaa.org>

Disclosure Summary

Disclosure Information

What you should know about reported disclosure events:

(1) Certain thresholds must be met before an event is reported to IARD, for example:

- A law enforcement agency must file formal charges before an Investment Adviser Representative is required to report a particular criminal event.;
- A customer dispute must involve allegations that an Investment Adviser Representative engaged in activity that violates certain rules or conduct governing the industry and that the activity resulted in damages of at least $5,000.

(2) Disclosure events in IAPD reports come from different sources:

As mentioned in the "About IAPD" section on page 1 of this report, information contained in IAPD comes from Investment Adviser Representatives, firms and regulators. When more than one of these sources reports information for the same disclosure event, all versions of the event will appear in the IAPD report. The different versions will be separated by a solid line with the reporting source labeled.

(3) There are different statuses and dispositions for disclosure events:

- A disclosure event may have a status of pending, on appeal, or final.
  - A "pending" disclosure event involves allegations that have not been proven or formally adjudicated.
  - A disclosure event that is "on appeal" involves allegations that have been adjudicated but are currently being appealed.
  - A "final" disclosure event has been concluded and its resolution is not subject to change.
- A final disclosure event generally has a disposition of adjudicated, settled or otherwise resolved.
  - An "adjudicated" matter includes a disposition by (1) a court of law in a criminal or civil matter, or (2) an administrative panel in an action brought by a regulator that is contested by the party charged with some alleged wrongdoing.
  - A "settled" matter generally represents a disposition wherein the parties involved in a dispute reach an agreement to resolve the matter. Please note that Investment Adviser Representatives and firms may choose to settle customer disputes or regulatory matters for business or other reasons.
  - A "resolved" matter usually includes a disposition wherein no payment is made to the customer or there is no finding of wrongdoing on the part of the Investment Adviser Representative. Such matters generally involve customer disputes.

(4) You may wish to contact the Investment Adviser Representatives to obtain further information regarding any of the disclosure events contained in this IAPD report.

DISCLOSURE EVENT DETAILS

When evaluating this information, please keep in mind that some items may involve pending actions or allegations that may be contested and have not been resolved or proven. The event may, in the end, be withdrawn, dismissed, resolved in favor of the Investment Adviser Representative, or concluded through a negotiated settlement with no admission or finding of wrongdoing.

This report provides the information exactly as it was reported to the Investment Adviser Registration Depository. Some of the specific data fields contained in the report may be blank if the information was not provided.

Termination

This disclosure event involves a situation where the Investment Adviser Representative voluntarily resigned, was discharged or was permitted to resign after allegations were made that accused the Investment Adviser Representative of violating investment-related statutes, regulations, rules or industry standards of conduct; fraud or the wrongful taking of property; or failure to supervise in connection with investment-related statutes, regulations, rules or industry standards of conduct.

Disclosure 1 of 1

Reporting Source: Firm
Firm Name: NISSIM & GAVIDIA WEALTH MANAGEMENT & FINANCIAL PLANNING, LLC
Termination Type: Discharged
Termination Date: 10/20/2021

Allegations: Mr. Nissim was discharged for failure to adhere to firm policies and procedures related to block trading. A pattern of trades was identified where he entered orders in the firm block account without first properly identifying their planned allocations as set forth in the firm procedures manual. Mr. Nissim's actions were also inconsistent with his fiduciary duty as the pattern was indicative of self-dealing with trades exhibiting favorable intra-day price movement were allocated to personal/preferred accounts.

Product Type: Equity Listed (Common & Preferred Stock)

Reporting Source: Individual
Firm Name: Nissim & Gavidia Wealth Management & Financial Planning, LLC
Termination Type: Discharged
Termination Date: 10/20/2021

Allegations: Mr. Nissim was discharged for failure to adhere to firm policies & procedures related to block trading. A pattern of trades was identified where he entered orders in the firm block account without first properly identifying their planned allocations as set forth in the firm procedures manual. Mr. Nissim's actions were also inconsistent with his fiduciary duty as the pattern was indicative of self-dealing with trades exhibiting favorable intra-day price movement were allocated to person/preferred accounts.

Product Type: Equity Listed (Common & Preferred Stock)

Broker Statement Mr. Nissim vehemently denies these allegations. Mr. Nissim believes he followed company policies pertaining to block trading as drafted and enforced by Mr. Gavidia, the firm's Chief Compliance Officer, who was also responsible for supervising personal trading activity. Further, Mr. Nissim was denied the right to review any documents or materials created by the firm in alleging that his trading practices benefitted himself or certain clients, or that Mr. Nissim breached his fiduciary duty. To the contrary, Mr. Nissim has always approached his role as a fiduciary with the utmost care and respect. Mr. Nissim has decades of experience servicing his clients and has always strived to ensure his actions are in their best interests. In addition, Mr. Nissim believes material misrepresentations were made to him upon his departure concerning his ownership rights and book of business, and is exploring available remedies.
